Our Revival was a huge success, and our BCC Choir Men made

Wednesday night extra special singing some of our old favorite hymns. They were so good, we nearly asked them to come back for an encore—and maybe take requests next time! A big thank-you to these talented men for sharing their gifts and helping make the week so memorable!

Homecoming Sunday

We are so thankful you are here to worship with us today. Whether you are a first-time visitor, a returning friend, or a longtime member, you are a cherished part of our church family.

Homecoming is a special time to celebrate God's faithfulness, to remember our heritage, and to rejoice in the blessings He continues to pour out. We pray that today's service uplifts your heart, encourages your spirit, and reminds you of the joy of being part of God's family. May you feel His presence in worship, His love in fellowship, and His peace as we share this day together.
