Gratitude From the Places We Give

As a church family, our gifts make a real difference. Each ministry we support has expressed appreciation for the kindness, consistency, and generosity of Bath Christian Church. We are grateful to share a few of the places blessed by your giving:

- Eagle’s Wings Food Pantry – thankful for ongoing support that helps feed families in our community.
- Ruth’s House – grateful for donated items that bring comfort and safety.
- Salvation Army – appreciative of funds for meals and winter clothing contributions.
- Maynard’s Children’s Hospital – thankful for seasonal outreach for young patients.
- Operation Christmas Child – grateful for filled shoeboxes that reach children around the world with love and hope.
- Senior Care & Nursing Home Visits – appreciative of your cards, gifts, and presence with residents.
- Bath Elementary School – thankful for donation to Bright Futures Site Council.
- Roanoke Christian Camp – grateful for your donation to their “Make Room “ Campaign.
- ECU Medical Center Hospice Center Washington - grateful for your donation of comfort items for use during chemotherapy.
- Open Door Women’s Shelter grateful for you donations to help homeless women and children.
- Zion Shelter & Soup Kitchen thankful for your donations to help provide meals and shelter to the homeless.

We thank God for the privilege of giving, and we thank you, church family, for being the hands and feet of Christ. Your generosity shines far beyond our walls.
